Reds Blame Riot On Allen Dulles

Berlin, June 24 (AP) — The Soviet-controlled East German radio charged repeatedly tonight that Allen Dulles, head of the United States Central Intelligence Agency, gave direct orders that set off the strike riots against Communist rule last week. It said he had been in Berlin for a week.

A United States High Commission official said tonight Allen Dulles, brother of John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, "hasn't been within 3,000 miles of Berlin for many months."

The radio attributed its report to the French Communist newspaper L'Humanité.

It said Secretary Dulles ordered Allen and their sister, Eleanor Lansing Dulles, to "try to create a new Thirty-eighth Parallel in Berlin" like South Korea's "aggression" in 1950. (Communists invariably call South Korea the aggressor in the war started from North Korea three years ago tomorrow.)

Eleanor Dulles, an economic adviser in the State Department's bureau of German affairs, left Berlin last Monday after a ten-day official visit.
